

July 14, 2024

Sermon Notes

Exodus 3

It's Not You, It's Me!

Pastor Scott Suskovic

- I. Sermon Series—That's None of Your Business (And Other Words of Grace)
- II. It's Not You, It's Me
  - A. Do you know who invented that phrase?
  - B. Why and how do we use that phrase?
- III. Moses' Attempted Breakup with God
  - A. Historical background
  - B. First try—I am a nobody
  - C. Second try—I have no authority
  - D. Third try—I'm unbelievable
  - E. Fourth try—I don't talk so good
  - F. Fifth try—I just don't want to!
- IV. A Word of Grace
  - A. The pattern from the Bible of people who wanted to break up with God, saying, "It's not you, it's me."
  - B. The story of Peter's Call
    - 1. Jesus' invitation
    - 2. Peter's response: Go away from me; I am a sinful man
    - 3. Jesus' response
- V. Conclusion
  - A. When have you felt less than "enough?"
  - B. You are in good company
  - C. God twists our lame excuse into his promise of grace
  - D. "It truly is not about you, it has always been about me and my grace for anyone who has never felt that they are "enough."